

I WISH MY MOTHER HAD TOLD ME.....

that God loves me that God has a special plan for me how very special I am to God that God made me in a unique way to fulfill the special plan He has for me the stories of God's people, especially the stories about God's faithfulness to women that I can talk to God and He loves to hear from me that God loves to hear my songs to Him, and see my pictures made for Him that I can learn to hear God speaking to me that I can be myself—think my thoughts, feel my feelings that sometimes it is hard to be who God made me to be, but He can help me that it is good to use my special gifts and skills that I can be assertive in a healthy, godly way that we don't all fit into the same box—God loves our uniqueness that I can be smart and pretty—I don't have to pick that God loves smart girls that God loves brave girls that God blesses our faith in Him and our obedience to Him that sometimes things are hard or sad, but He will always be with me
